SKETCHES OF LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

BY O. O. McINTYRE

Telegram Bureau: Rooms 121-122 Hotel Majestic, West Seventy-second Street.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Mme. New York is to play hostess to 20,000 club women from all over the United States when the national convention of women's clubs meets here during the last week of May. Reservations have been made in fifty-eight of the leading hotels and the committees are planning to assure their sisters from all the states a memorable sojourn on our more or less well known island.

At the hotels a dollar only is to be demanded for an apartment, even to those where $28 for the single day is the ordinary asking price for the luxuries afforded. The daily conferences will be held at the Astor.

Sisters from Kentucky give a luncheon at the Plaza, those from Indiana a reception at the McAlpin and up at the historic Claremont the sisters from far away California will give a garden party. Pennsylvania entertains at the Waldorf and at divers times will all the congress of state societies keep open house at the Majestic.

Nora Bayes gave one of her famous twenty-four hour parties the other night on West End avenue at her apartment. It was her object to have every type of employee of the theater represented from the star to the carriage starter.

There were press agents, box office men, stage managers and the like—but at the last moment she forgot to invite a representative of the ticket speculator but when she tried to get them she found them all too busy counting their money.

Miss Bayes is giving a series of new imitations which amuse the Broadwayites who care for her style of humor. One imitation is of a Hebrew drummer boy going to war. Here it is, but say it quickly:

To the bank, to the bank—to the bank, to the bank, to the bank. Another is her imitation of a cat. This is it: "Goodness Maud did you ever see such a looking hat as Agnes is wearing?"

At the next meeting of the Rainy Day club next week rain or shine, announcement will be made that the famous organization has completed its work. After nearly twenty-one years of constant and persistent endeavor, the Rainy Daisies have accomplished their great object.

They have raised women's skirts from the ground. The club was organized back in 1896 to promote the wearing of short skirts. In those days it was the style to wear long trailing skirts that did a portion of the work now paid for by the department of street cleaning.

It was the trouble it caused the poor working woman, whose long skirts dampened in the rain, sometimes made her ill and caused her much annoyance. The aim of the club was to raise the skirts four inches above the ground. It has been a hard fight but inch by inch they succeeded. A glance skirtward in any up-to-date mixed gathering will confirm this.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by any druggist under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.—Advertisement.

There is wisdom in parents supplying such favorites as these, rather than permitting their children to do their own candy buying on the unwise basis of quantity rather than quality. The craving of children for sweets is a natural one and it is a wise parent who appreciates this and supplies only the purest and best candy. It's always fresh.
